Three policemen were dispatched, and after a hunt of several hours, occasioned by a misunderstanding, reached the place. ## DONATION TO RAILROAD BUTE WALTZ MARATHON

Condemnation Suit Closes With Verdict of $1,800 for Property.

(Special to The Herald-Republic.)
Ogden, Dec. 8.—After being out five hours, the jury in the case of the Ogden Rapid Transit company against J. S. Lewis, for condemnation of his property in Ogden canyon, brought in a verdict tonight allowing Lewis $1,800. The verdict is decidedly in favor of the transit company, as the lowest appraisal made by experts during the long trial placed the damage accruing to the property by reason of passing the right of way across it, at $5,000. Others placed it as high as $11,000.

Lewis owns a camping grove several miles in Ogden canyon, through which the trolley line to the Hermitage cuts. For months he has stubbornly refused all overtures of compromise, carrying the case into court in an attempt to force the company to change the line. The transit company retaliated by filing condemnation proceedings. The case has been watched with much interest here, as a number of such cases are pending. No sooner had the Lewis case been given to the jury than the case of the Ogden Rapid Transit company against Ogden School district, for condemnation of its property in Ogden canyon, commenced. The Farr Line company, with holdings in the canyon, will be the next defendant.

Six Girl Contestants in Hospital and Three Others Finally Taken From Floor by Police.

Butte, Dec. 8.—After dancing continuously for 14 hours and 41 minutes without nourishment of any kind, three of the fifty-three couples that started last night in the "Marathon" waltz contest were stopped tonight by officers acting under instructions from Mayor Nevins. Six girl contestants had been taken to a hospital, one suffering from a ruptured blood vessel and another having been stricken with muscular paralysis. As the hours dragged on the tongues of the girls fairly hung from their mouths, while their male companions struggled to keep their partners on the floor. A fainting girl seemed only to add to the excitement of the 500 spectators who crowded the halls.

(Special to The Herald-Republic.)
Ogden, Dec. 8.—Rushing breathlessly into the county clerk's office just at the closing hour, Joseph H. ## ACTION IS QUESTIONED.

(Special to The Herald-Republic.)

Nye the privilege of buying secondary stock in the Weber-Davis County Canal company. The county held an option which is claimed by several men in high position to be worth several thousand dollars. Nye's concessions merely allow him the privilege of putting up $2,700 to cover the option. Much mystery surrounds the deal.
